Spring Break in the Gardens Camp

March 25-29, 8am-12pm

2nd-4th graders can explore the Gardens looking for signs of spring during spring break this year. Find animal tracks, plants waking up from winter, and more. $100 for the week.

Tots in the Gardens

2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month, 10-11am

Adventure in nature, using the alphabet as a guide. Each session will highlight a letter as we engage in hands-on nature activities. For 3-5 year olds. $2 per member, $4 per non-member (fee for children only)

February 12th - What can you find under a log? Under the snow? We'll explore everything under!

February 26th - Be a young scientist at the Gardens! Do an experiment, ask questions and learn!

Weekend Wonders

2nd Sunday of the month, 2-3:30pm

Each month explores a new topic which can take us on adventures through the Gardens and creating projects to take home! Free for members, $2 per non-member (fee for children only)

February 10th - Groundhogs

Summer Camp in the Gardens

Immerse your child in nature at Monk Botanical Gardens through one of our summer camps. At the Gardens campers will be able to learn about relevant environmental subjects through hands on activities, work together with their peers, and spend time outdoors! Find more information on our website at monkgardens.org $100 per week for members, $120 per week for non-members.
